

Items of Maine News.

L. C. Bean of Livermore Falls had a team stolen, Friday. No clue.

A public library in Rockland seems now an assured fact.

The people of Canaan seem determined to keep their town divided.

Judge Peters is quite ill at his home in Bangor.

Several divorces were granted at the recent brief term of the Supreme Judicial Court in Belfast.

Cornwall Stackspole of Auburn, a prominent citizen, died yesterday, Tuesday forenoon.

The President has appointed Eldridge D. Bryant to be collector of customs for the port of Portland.

Mr. Eliot of Hampden, who was robbed of $7,000, recently, while on his way home from a vacation, has disappeared and no trace of him has been found.

A. Waldo may say: "Farewell, I am exchange cows for hens if he could be induced to lay. One dozen eggs buy a dozen chickens, and so on."

William L. Berry has been appointed Postmaster of Riegville, wife, Jessie L. Rieg, 17, Calder, North Cornville.

Mr. Joseph Welch has purchased the Bens place at West Harbor. In the spring he will probably erect several cottages there.

The following patients have been granted in Maine: James H. Sewall, Portland, heart, appendicitis. Charles Eliza, Scarborough, fracture. James K. Brown, Portland, heart.

The labor trouble at Kimball Brothers' factory, Portland, has been settled, the international Union having decided that the firm has a right to retain or discharge employees as it thinks best.

For the past two weeks the Knights of Columbus making cans at the horn factory at that place, Tuesday, January 10, were at work and will make about 37,000 cans.

Hon. C. P. Allen has tendered his resignation as President of the Presque Isle Bank. The bank is in excellent financial condition. Its stock being worth 150 a share.

The firm of McLellan, Mosher & Co., Exchange Street, Portland, at No. 37 Exchange Street, Portland, and at No. 37 Hiram Knowlton, Esq., The liabilities of the firm are $100,000.

During the night of Saturday after dark, burglars entered the house of Thomas S. Fuller, on "east" street, Portland, getting admission money.

It seems to be the first time that anyone has tried to check the spread of the fever.

The inaugural message of Governor

Peek, author of "Peek's Bad Boy" to the Wisconsin State Legislature attacks the Bennett Compulsory Education law as in terfering with the condition of the children in the State. He believes that the law is a good one.

General Miles has issued a com mand to all officers to be strict in the enforcement of parental rights.

Cold weather prevails extensively on the continent. The Thanes are nearly covered with snow, and prove disastrous to young fruit trees.

The small berries were broken down in

B. H. Bell Post, of Bangor, has appoin ted a committee to find a suitable lot for the erection of a new committee to secure

plans for the building.

The ice storm of Saturday and Sunday last week caused much damage and prove disastrous to young fruit trees.

The small berries were broken down in

B. H. Bell Post, of Bangor, has appoin

ted a committee to find a suitable lot for

the erection of a new committee to secure

plans for the building.

Rev. J. R. Bowler, the well known baptist clergyman, died at the Maine theatre, where he had been for many years. He was in Paris in 1825, and ordained in the Presbyterian ministry in 1835.

During the recent severe winter storm, the waves swept over Avery's Rock near Ma-kena, taking off all the boats, and all the houses, except the light house. The keeper's family was saved by being in the light house.

Maline's 200 oxen, owned by Mr.

Peek, author of "Peek's Bad Boy" to the Wisconsin State Legislature attacks the Bennett Compulsory Education law as in

terfering with the condition of the

children in the State. He believes

that the law is a good one.

General Miles has issued a com mand to all officers to be strict in

the enforcement of parental rights.

Cold weather prevails extensively on

the continent. The Thanes are nearly

covered with snow, and prove disastrous to young fruit trees.

The small berries were broken down in

B. H. Bell Post, of Bangor, has appoin

ted a committee to find a suitable lot for

the erection of a new committee to secure

plans for the building.

Rev. J. R. Bowler, the well known

baptist clergyman, died at the Maine

theatre, where he had been for many years. He was in Paris in 1825, and ordained

in the Presbyterian ministry in 1835.

During the recent severe winter storm, the

waves swept over Avery's Rock near Ma-

kena, taking off all the boats, and all the

houses, except the light house. The

keeper's family was saved by being in the

light house.

Maline's 200 oxen, owned by Mr.

Peek, author of "Peek's Bad Boy" to the

Wisconsin State Legislature attacks the

Bennett Compulsory Education law as in

terfering with the condition of the

children in the State. He believes

that the law is a good one.

General Miles has issued a com mand to all officers to be strict in

the enforcement of parental rights.

Cold weather prevails extensively on

the continent. The Thanes are nearly

covered with snow, and prove disastrous to young fruit trees.

The small berries were broken down in

B. H. Bell Post, of Bangor, has appoin

ted a committee to find a suitable lot for

the erection of a new committee to secure

plans for the building.

Rev. J. R. Bowler, the well known

baptist clergyman, died at the Maine

theatre, where he had been for many years. He was in Paris in 1825, and ordained

in the Presbyterian ministry in 1835.

During the recent severe winter storm, the

waves swept over Avery's Rock near Ma-

kena, taking off all the boats, and all the

houses, except the light house. The

keeper's family was saved by being in the

light house.

Maline's 200 oxen, owned by Mr.

Peek, author of "Peek's Bad Boy" to the

Wisconsin State Legislature attacks the

Bennett Compulsory Education law as in

terfering with the condition of the

children in the State. He believes

that the law is a good one.

General Miles has issued a com mand to all officers to be strict in

the enforcement of parental rights.

Cold weather prevails extensively on

the continent. The Thanes are nearly

covered with snow, and prove disastrous to young fruit trees.

The small berries were broken down in

B. H. Bell Post, of Bangor, has appoin

ted a committee to find a suitable lot for

the erection of a new committee to secure

plans for the building.

Rev. J. R. Bowler, the well known

baptist clergyman, died at the Maine

theatre, where he had been for many years. He was in Paris in 1825, and ordained

in the Presbyterian ministry in 1835.

During the recent severe winter storm, the

waves swept over Avery's Rock near Ma-

kena, taking off all the boats, and all the

houses, except the light house. The

keeper's family was saved by being in the

light house.

Maline's 200 oxen, owned by Mr.

Peek, author of "Peek's Bad Boy" to the

Wisconsin State Legislature attacks the

Bennett Compulsory Education law as in

terfering with the condition of the

children in the State. He believes

that the law is a good one.

General Miles has issued a com mand to all officers to be strict in

the enforcement of parental rights.

Cold weather prevails extensively on

the continent. The Thanes are nearly

covered with snow, and prove disastrous to young fruit trees.

The small berries were broken down in

B. H. Bell Post, of Bangor, has appoin

ted a committee to find a suitable lot for

the erection of a new committee to secure

plans for the building.

Rev. J. R. Bowler, the well known

baptist clergyman, died at the Maine

theatre, where he had been for many years. He was in Paris in 1825, and ordained

in the Presbyterian ministry in 1835.

During the recent severe winter storm, the

waves swept over Avery's Rock near Ma-

kena, taking off all the boats, and all the

houses, except the light house. The

keeper's family was saved by being in the

light house.

Maline's 200 oxen, owned by Mr.

Peek, author of "Peek's Bad Boy" to the

Wisconsin State Legislature attacks the

Bennett Compulsory Education law as in

terfering with the condition of the

children in the State. He believes

We should be extremely careful to draw conclusions from so

One scholar has already at tion to enter the dairy school when it shall be opened. Sen

W. H. Keith of Winthrop, w ture's choice evaporated ap ly his mark of the past year at eigh a pound.

The Winthrop and all other at the Winthrop meeting was in

M. H. Berry, Superintendent of City Creamery, Portland.

was done in a hurried manner and put up in hasty prints. Mr.

master of the work in all its de tail.

The Secretary of the Board ture is not in the way of m announcements he does not inten to do any advertising programme, for the meeting at Winthrop, even if it was carried out as advertising people appreciate this reliability.

The Governor and the other

Senate and House, on the occasi on to the dairy conference at at dinner at the Winthrop Hotel served with butter made at the co in the forenoon of the same day drum milk from the cows the same day.

Much credit is due to Mess

Carroll, Ayer, and the other citizens' committee at the Winthrop meeting, for their efforts in provi ing and the entertainment of the people in attendance from distant houses were opened freely and ho nestly, and all were well received.

That the meeting was a success, and for the good work done in a hurried manner and put up in hasty prints. Mr.

master of the work in all its de tail.

The mowing machine and harves ter, spoken of some weeks ago, do not seem to be made up of bedfells

but are made up of side.

The arrangement "paid off," and each

corn will go to work again in a short time.

It seems that a majority of the

were raised to raise the price of

machines, and the country, because

make money enough now, and that

advantage would be to the busi ness and unwise to the majority

withdrew, and the country

went to pieces.

The State of Massachusetts

is a legislative agent at the State Ho use influence, to defend the farmers from an unscrupulous lobby in to give agents special legislation to strengthen their burdens. Ex-Senator

J. W. St. John of Rochester, for his just legislation, and G. M. Whitaker of Worcester, for his same

effort. John D. Hinckley of Cranston

of Providence, and Wilmot Castle & Co.

Rochester, N. Y.,

are the thanks of the recipi ents of the hospitality of Winthrop will be remembered.

The mowing machine and harves

ter, spoken of some weeks ago, do

not seem to be made up of bedfells

but are made up of side.

The arrangement "paid off," and each

corn will go to work again in a short time.

It seems that a majority of the

were raised to raise the price of

machines, and the country, because

make money enough now, and that

advantage would be to the busi

ness and unwise to the majority

withdrew, and the country

went to pieces.

The State of Massachusetts

is a legislative agent at the State Ho

use influence, to defend the farmers

from an unscrupulous lobby in

to give agents special legislation

to strengthen their burdens. Ex-Senator

J. W. St. John of Rochester, for

his just legislation, and G. M. Whitaker

of Worcester, for his same

effort. John D. Hinckley of Cranston

of Providence, and Wilmot Castle & Co.

Rochester, N. Y.,

are the thanks of the recipi

ents of the hospitality of Winthrop will be remembered.

The mowing machine and harves

ter, spoken of some weeks ago, do

not seem to be made up of bedfells

but are made up of side.

The arrangement "paid off," and each

corn will go to work again in a short time.

It seems that a majority of the

were raised to raise the price of

machines, and the country, because

make money enough now, and that

advantage would be to the busi

ness and unwise to the majority

withdrew, and the country

went to pieces.

The mowing machine and harves

ter, spoken of some weeks ago, do

not seem to be made up of bedfells

but are made up of side.

The arrangement "paid off," and each

corn will go to work again in a short time.

It seems that a majority of the

were raised to raise the price of

machines, and the country, because

make money enough now, and that

advantage would be to the busi

ness and unwise to the majority

withdrew, and the country

went to pieces.

The mowing machine and harves

ter, spoken of some weeks ago, do

not seem to be made up of bedfells

but are made up of side.

The arrangement "paid off," and each

corn will go to work again in a short time.

It seems that a majority of the

were raised to raise the price of

machines, and the country, because

make money enough now, and that

advantage would be to the busi

ness and unwise to the majority

withdrew, and the country

went to pieces.

The mowing machine and harves

ter, spoken of some weeks ago, do

not seem to be made up of bedfells

but are made up of side.

The arrangement "paid off," and each

corn will go to work again in a short time.

It seems that a majority of the

were raised to raise the price of

machines, and the country, because

make money enough now, and that

advantage would be to the busi

ness and unwise to the majority

withdrew, and the country

went to pieces.

The mowing machine and harves

ter, spoken of some weeks ago, do

not seem to be made up of bedfells

but are made up of side.

The arrangement "paid off," and each

corn will go to work again in a short time.

It seems that a majority of the

were raised to raise the price of

machines, and the country, because

make money enough now, and that

advantage would be to the busi

ness and unwise to the majority

withdrew, and the country

went to pieces.

The mowing machine and harves

ter, spoken of some weeks ago, do